

FISCAL NOTE

HB 533 - SB 858

February 20, 1997

SUMMARY OF BILL:

Requires that a part-time/temporary/reserve/auxiliary/police officer work only in an office position until having attended at least 10 hours of POST-approved in-service training. Current law does not require training for part-time officers; however, POST rules require that such part-time officers attend 40 hours of training during the first calendar year of employment.

ESTIMATED FISCAL IMPACT:

MINIMAL

Assumes that local governments will simply require their part-time officers to attend part of POST-required training already in place before assigning them to active positions.
